

Homophones Worksheet

Homophones are words that sound the same but have different meanings and spellings.

Example: there / their / they're (they are / possessive / contraction)

A. Fill in the blanks with the correct homophone from the box.

there	their	they're	here	hear
to	too	two	right	write

- I will be _____ in a few minutes.
- _____ are my friends.
- The teacher said _____ not to run in the hall.
- Can you _____ the birds?
- Please bring _____ books.
- I want to go _____ the park.
- I have _____ pencils in my bag.
- The bus is _____ on time.
- This is _____ house.
- I want to _____ a letter.

B. Choose the correct homophone.

- I don't like that book. It's _____ (boring / born).
- The cat sat on _____ mat. (its / it's)
- _____ going to the market. (Their / They're)
- I can _____ you a story. (tale / tail)
- We saw a rainbow _____ (to / too) late.
- I have _____ apples. (two / to)
- _____ is a big tree in the garden. (There / Their)
- My friend lost _____ bag. (his / he's)
- Please _____ the door. (close / clothes)
- The children are playing _____ (their / they're)

C. Match the homophones in Column A with their correct meanings in Column B.

Column A

- here
- hear
- their
- there
- too
- two
- right
- write
- your
- you're

Column B

- a place (over there)
- belonging to them
- to make a mark with a pen
- you are
- more than enough
- a number after one
- to listen
- in this place
- correct
- belonging to you

D. Rewrite the sentences using the correct homophone.

- I think the book is there. (their / they're)
- The dog wagged its tail. (its / it's)
- We will go to the beach tomorrow. (to / too)
- She can play the piano. (hear / here)
- There house is very big. (their / there)
- I have two brothers. (to / too)
- The baby is sleeping. (right / write)
- I saw a bird over there. (their / there)
- This is your pen. (your / you're)
- They are going to the park. (their / they're)

E. Underline the correct homophone in each sentence.

- I found my (their / there) toy under the bed.
- Please (here / hear) me carefully.
- We are going (to / too) the museum.
- This is (two / to) apples.
- I don't like (your / you're) behaviour.
- The cat chased (its / it's) tail.
- (Their / There) are many flowers in the garden.
- Can you (right / write) your name?
- I want (to / too) drink some water.
- The children are (their / they're) very happy.

F. Write the correct homophone for each meaning.

- the opposite of wrong - _____
- a place - _____
- a number after one - _____
- belonging to you - _____
- belonging to them - _____
- to make a mark with a pen - _____
- you are - _____
- more than enough - _____
- to listen - _____
- in this place - _____