

Abstract Nouns Worksheet – Class 5

Name: _____

Date: _____

Class: _____

Learning Goal

Identify, form, and use abstract nouns correctly.

Remember: An abstract noun names a quality, feeling, idea, state, or experience that we cannot usually see or touch.

Examples: kindness, honesty, bravery, happiness, childhood, freedom

A. Spot the Abstract Nouns

Underline the abstract noun in each sentence.

1. Riya was filled with joy when she won the competition.
 2. The soldier showed great courage during the rescue.
 3. We should always speak the truth.
 4. Her kindness made the lonely child feel better.
 5. Childhood is a wonderful stage of life.
 6. The judge admired the girl's honesty.
 7. Everyone deserves freedom and respect.
 8. His anger disappeared after he spoke to his friend.
-

B. Choose the Correct Abstract Noun

Choose the best word from the brackets.

1. The little boy showed great _____ when he returned the lost wallet. (honesty / anger / sadness)
 2. The teacher praised Meera for her _____ towards new students. (kindness / fear / weakness)
 3. The climber needed great _____ to reach the top. (bravery / laziness / jealousy)
 4. We felt great _____ when our team won the match. (happiness / darkness / illness)
 5. The old man spoke about his _____ with great affection. (childhood / softness / hunger)
 6. The villagers celebrated their _____ after many years of struggle. (freedom / sadness / sleep)
-

C. Make Abstract Nouns

Write the abstract noun formed from each word.

Word	Abstract Noun
1. kind	_____
2. honest	_____
3. brave	_____
4. happy	_____
5. wise	_____
6. proud	_____
7. strong	_____
8. cruel	_____
9. free	_____
10. patient	_____

D. Noun Detective

Read each sentence carefully. Write the abstract noun and state what it expresses: quality, feeling, idea, or state.

Example:

The girl's kindness touched everyone's heart.

Abstract noun: kindness — Quality

1. His fear disappeared when his father arrived.

Abstract noun: _____ — _____

2. The children were excited about their freedom.

Abstract noun: _____ — _____

3. We should show respect to our elders.

Abstract noun: _____ — _____

4. Her happiness was clear from her smile.

Abstract noun: _____ — _____

5. Wisdom comes with experience.

Abstract noun: _____ — _____

E. Concrete or Abstract?

Write C for Concrete Noun and A for Abstract Noun.

1. _____ book
 2. _____ friendship
 3. _____ mountain
 4. _____ bravery
 5. _____ anger
 6. _____ pencil
 7. _____ knowledge
 8. _____ teacher
 9. _____ beauty
 10. _____ garden
 11. _____ patience
 12. _____ puppy
-

F. Find the Odd One Out

Three words in each group are abstract nouns. Circle the word that is not an abstract noun.

1. honesty – kindness – table – courage
 2. happiness – freedom – school – wisdom
 3. anger – fear – flower – sadness
 4. beauty – friendship – pencil – loyalty
 5. patience – bravery – soldier – confidence
-

G. Complete the Sentences

Use a suitable abstract noun to complete each sentence. More than one answer may sometimes be possible.

1. A good leader needs _____ to make difficult decisions.
 2. We should treat everyone with _____.
 3. The child screamed in _____ when he saw the snake.
 4. The students listened to the story with great _____.
 5. Her _____ helped her remain calm while waiting.
 6. The family celebrated with great _____ after hearing the good news.
 7. The king was known for his _____ and fair decisions.
 8. We should never lose _____ during difficult times.
-

H. Rewrite the Sentences

Replace the words in bold with a suitable abstract noun.

Example:

The boy was kind to everyone.

→ The boy showed kindness to everyone.

1. The girl was honest about her mistake.
→ The girl showed _____ about her mistake.
 2. The firefighter was brave while rescuing the child.
→ The firefighter showed great _____ while rescuing the child.
 3. The teacher was patient with the young learners.
→ The teacher showed great _____ with the young learners.
 4. The old man was wise in his advice.
→ The old man showed great _____ in his advice.
-

I. Correct the Mistakes

Each sentence contains an incorrect abstract noun. Rewrite it correctly.

1. Rahul showed happy when he received the prize.

 2. The girl's honest impressed her parents.

 3. We admired the soldier's brave.

 4. His kind made everyone feel welcome.

 5. The teacher appreciated the student's patient.

-

J. Think and Write

Write one sentence using each abstract noun.

1. friendship

 2. confidence

 3. responsibility

 4. gratitude

-

K.

Read the paragraph and find five abstract nouns.

Aarav felt great excitement when he entered the school competition. Although he had some fear, his confidence grew when his friends encouraged him. He performed with courage and thanked everyone with gratitude after the event.

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____
- 4. _____
- 5. _____

L.

Imagine that you are creating a “Wall of Good Qualities” for your classroom.

Choose five abstract nouns that describe qualities every good student should have.

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____
- 4. _____
- 5. _____

Now write one short sentence explaining why one of your chosen qualities is important.
